County Museum's Flower Show Has Much of Interest

If you are a mushroom fancier, who has always been afraid to eat the wild ones, you may learn how to tell the good from the poisonous varieties at the spring wild flower show, to open Saturday, April 27, at the Los Angeles county museum, and continue for one month.

Although nominally a wild flower show, the exhibit includes much else of interest, including "Trees of our Forests" showing the range of distribution of many native species. The cactus family will be represented with a chart locality and names of different varieties.

Marine fossils have been found in the Grand Canyon and Painted Desert regions of northern Arizona.

Evening high school, will be instructor.

Plans are being made to insure enough lessons in the course so a diploma can be awarded at the finish. For further particulars call Torrance 615, after 6 p. m. on Monday or Wednesday. The class is open to men and women alike. There will be no charge for instruction.

VISITORS CONTEST . . . Next week Torrance high school is going to be the busiest it has been this year. We will observe Public Schools Week. Not only is it "Open House Week," but a contest is being held between all classes to see how many can get the most visitors. The winning class is to have its name engraved on a trophy.

TRAVEL TALKER . . . Monday the most interesting and most appreciated speaker that the high school student body has enjoyed for years was presented by the Greyhound Bus Co. Commander Scott, adventurer and explorer, is very different from most speakers we have had. The students would call out a country they wanted to know about and he would tell us interesting, humorous and educational points concerning that country. Scott was very kind to give lectures during the day concerning world problems.

SHIPPING SPEAKER . . . Commissioner Roberts, representative of the Federal Harbor Commission for Pacific Coast Shipping, honored the student body recently with an interesting talk, followed by a more interesting picture on our own Los Angeles Harbor. This picture showed all imports and exports from and to the harbor.

GRAMMAR GALLUP . . . This week has been a busy one for the students and faculty. The All class is sponsoring a "Grammar Week" to promote better English. The purpose of this contest is to see how long a student or teacher can go without making a mistake in oral English. When one does make a mistake, a hole is punched on a card the individual is wearing. The winners are to have honorable mentions and their names published in the school paper and in this column.

SCHOLAR SESSION . . . Saturday members of our scholarship society are to attend the Southern California Scholarship Federation convention on the Pomona College campus at Claremont. This convention is put on with the cooperation of the Pomona college. Those who will attend from Torrance high are: Helen Thompson, Eleanor Lukes, Patricia Doan, Marcelle Smith, Phyllis Campbell, Betty Forbis, Kathryn Quimby, Irene Findley, Virginia Hall, Frank Whiting and Miss Irene Mills.

'Skeeter Abatement Now in Progress

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Lomita Chamber of Commerce Monday night a report was given on the unusual epidemic of mosquitoes. The area in which large numbers of mosquitoes have appeared so early in the season extends from the oilfields south to 248th street. The county health office reported they had men in the district at work on the problem and the nuisance would be soon abated.

The corner of 259th Place and Walnut street has been graded and is now open to traffic. This is the triangular lot purchased by the county from Anna Lee and Joseph Carrico to straighten Walnut street and do away with a narrow and dangerous intersection.

Shawyer Takes Former Position With Rubbercraft

William E. Shawyer this week resumed his former position as superintendent of the Rubbercraft Corporation plant at Torrance from which he resigned a few years ago to join the D & M Machine Works as superintendent of its rubber department. In returning to Rubbercraft, Shawyer said it was like "going back home," as he worked for this company for 17 years, the last eight of which he was superintendent of the plant here. Rubbercraft Corporation is now working more than 60 employees in two shifts and the prospects for continued peak production are very good, Shawyer states.

Townsend Club Activities

By Vernon F. Glidden

The ham dinner and other events of last Thursday evening constituted one of the most successful and enjoyable events of our club activities yet to be staged. A large number enjoyed a delicious dinner served as only Townsendite cooks can serve good things to eat.

After all appetites were fully satisfied a short business session was held during which Mrs. Beth Paige was elected delegate to the district convention to be held at 7919 South Broadway, Tuesday evening, April 16.

Following this the evening was devoted to games and general good fellowship.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagner of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Amos French of Gardena. Several of members visited the Lennox club last week.

Monday evening eight Torrance members were privileged to attend a potluck dinner at the Gardena club. Fred Wagner and others spoke briefly and entertainment by Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Redondo Beach rounded out the program.
